1. Scope

All data subjects whose personal data is collected, in line with the requirements of the GDPR, for the delivery of Future Energy Wales 2023.

2. Responsibilities

- 2.1 The Data Protection Officer is responsible for ensuring that this notice is made available to data subjects prior to RenewableUK collecting/processing their personal data.
- 2.2 All Employees/Staff of RenewableUK who interact with data subjects are responsible for ensuring that this notice is drawn to the data subject's attention and their consent to the processing of their data is secured.

3. Privacy notice

3.1 Who are we?

RenewableUK is a trade body supporting members working in renewable electricity. Based in the UK, we deliver services which help members to grow their businesses at home and internationally. To support this work, we provide a range of communication and event services which deliver value to members. Some of these services are also available to non-members. Our Data Protection Officer / GDPR Owner and data protection representatives can be contacted directly here:

- dpo@RenewableUK.com
- 0207 901 3000

The personal data we would like to collect from you is:

Personal data type	Source
Job Title	Via bookings for events, registration for membership or general enquiries about RenewableUK work.
Job Type/Level	As above
Sector Type	As above
Employer	As above
Phone	As above
Email	As above
Relevant PA or contact details of any colleague making this booking on another's behalf	As above

The personal data we collect will be used for the following purposes:

- Communication on this event to ensure you have accurate information in the lead up to and during the event.
- Follow up communication post-event to secure feedback
- Communication on future events and initiatives relating to renewable electricity.

Our legal basis for processing for the personal data:

- As a trade body for the renewable electricity sector we receive contact data from our members and wider industry supply chain.
- We manage bookings made to attend our events, and will communicate on these and related events
- This data is used to further industry development, including supporting supply chain development and information sharing.

Any legitimate interests pursued by us, or third parties we use, are as follows:

- Provision of information to contacts received in the course of our trade association work from companies operating within our sector
- Provision of information to contacts received in the course of running equivalent sector events.

We do not collect or process special categories of personal data:

3.2 Consent

By consenting to this privacy notice you are giving us permission to process your personal data specifically for the purposes identified.

Consent is required for RenewableUK to process both types of personal data, but it must be explicitly given. Where we are asking you for sensitive personal data we will always tell you why and how the information will be used.

You may withdraw consent at any time either by:

- unsubscribing by clicking on an unsubscribe link in relevant electronic communication
- if a member, by logging into your details at www.RenewableUK.com and updating your communication preferences
- by emailing dpo@RenewableUK.com with a notification that you withdraw your consent for us to process personal data.

3.3 Disclosure

RenewableUK will not pass on your personal data to third parties without first obtaining your consent. The following third parties will receive your personal data for the following purpose(s) as part of the processing activities of this event:
